

Announcement for the Ray Ingersoll undergraduate thesis award:

Raymond V. Ingersoll Undergraduate Award

PS-SEPM is now accepting nominations for the Raymond V. Ingersoll undergraduate thesis award. This award is for the best senior thesis in sedimentology/stratigraphy by an undergraduate student. For consideration, the thesis/dissertation should have been completed in the current academic year (including summer). The award consists of $500, a 1-year membership in PS-SEPM, and recognition in the PS-SEPM newsletter meeting.

Nomination procedure:

Students are nominated for the Ingersoll award by their senior thesis advisor. Nomination forms are attached and must be filled out completely. Nominations must be submitted to PS-SEPM awards manager Dan Sturmer (Daniel.Sturmer@uc.edu) no later than Friday, April 15^t. Once submitted, a link will be sent to uploading the entire thesis for review. Awards will be announced in June.

Nomination form for the Raymond V. Ingersoll Undergraduate Award

Name of student: _____

Student e-mail: _____

Name of nominator/advisor: _____

Nominator/advisor e-mail: _____

Nominator/advisor phone number: _____

University: _____

Senior thesis
title: _____

Student graduation date: _____

Justification for nomination/significance of work:

Signature of nominator/advisor: _____

Date: _____

Please include an abstract of the thesis with this nomination form

This form should be returned to Daniel.Sturmer@uc.edu no later than April 15th